

Andreas Stergiou

Andreas V. Stergiou was born in 1986. He is an Economist (MSc, PhD Cand.) and a Class A Certified Accountant – Tax Consultant.

He is a graduate of the Department of Public Administration, holding postgraduate degrees specializing in Public Administration and Sustainable Development Strategies in Local Government, and is a PhD candidate in Public Finance.

He owns a Private Accounting & Tax Consultancy Firm. He has served as Deputy Mayor of Zografou, Associate of the Minister of Economy & Competitiveness, Scientific Associate in Public Finance for the Municipality of Nea Smyrni, and Scientific Associate of the Panhellenic Union of General Secretaries of Local Government. Through various positions of responsibility, he has gained significant experience in local government.

He has served as Treasurer of the Hellenic Archery Federation and remains a Regular Board Member. He was elected Vice President of the Hatzikonsta Foundation, where he now serves as Secretary of the Board.

He has been actively involved in associations focusing on the mountainous region of Argitheia, previously serving as Secretary General of the Panhellenic Federation of Argithean Associations, Secretary General of the Argitheans' Association of Athens, and President of the Stefanioties Association.

Since September 1, 2019, he has been the Mayor of Argitheia. Additionally, he serves as:

- Vice President of the Committee for Mountainous Areas of KEDE (Central Union of Municipalities of Greece)
- President of the “Pindos” Network
- Treasurer of the “Network of Cities with a Lake”
- Board Member of ANKA (Development Company of Karditsa)

He is married to Stella Arkouda, and they have a son and a daughter.