Pantelis Tsakiris

Born in Paleokastro in 1983, Pantelis Tsakiris is a graduate of Political Science from Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and the University of Salzburg (Austria).

He holds two Master's degrees: one in International Relations (Free University of Berlin) and another in Politics and Economy of Modern Eastern and Southeastern Europe (University of Macedonia). He is fluent in English and German.

In the latest municipal elections, he was elected Mayor of Oraiokastro with 69.27% of the vote.

He has served as a Municipal Councilor of Oraiokastro since 2007, engaging in local governance and European municipal networks.

In 2008, he was appointed to the Board of the Thessaloniki Special Diseases Hospital, and in 2013, at age 30, he became Deputy Administrator of "G. Gennimatas – Agios Dimitrios" Hospital.