

Sofia Christoforou

Dr Sofia Christoforou is the Director of the Inspectorate of Northern Greece of the Ministry of Environment and Energy and is Environmental Inspector. She is a chemical engineer, holds a PhD in the field of environmental protection and a Master' s Degree in Public Administration sector from the University of Macedonia.

She has over 20 years of experience in environmental inspections. She has dealt with significant environmental cases, as well as with environmental emergencies, specializing in waste management issues. Participates in working groups and committees of the Ministry of the Environment. She is administrator in the "National Register of Administrative Procedures"-Mitos and is responsible for registering and documenting of the procedures of the General Directorate of Inspectorate of the Ministry of Environment and Energy.

Dr Sofia Christoforou is a member of the Main Teaching Personnel of the National Center for Public Administration (EKDDA) and has been teaching since 2012 in training programs on the implementation of national and European environmental legislation, mainly on waste management and environmental inspections issues. In addition, she participates in the preparation of EKDDA training programs and educational material in the field of sustainable development. She has attended a lot of seminars and conferences and has been a speaker at several conferences and workshops on environmental issues. She has published ten articles in prestigious international scientific journals.